Sir:

On February 25, 2002, a telephone interview was held between Examiner Thompson and Applicant's undersigned representative. The Examiner's thoughtful attention and assistance in connection with the present application is greatly appreciated.

During the telephone interview, the Examiner pointed out numerous mistakes in the specification. These mistakes were non-substantive in nature, but included numerous grammatical errors and errors in identifying elements in the drawings. In addition, a detailed discussion regarding the claim language was held during the telephone interview. In particular, the Examiner indicated that the claims did not properly recite the connection
